

Bucks County Education

Together We Build Strong Minds

Bucks County, Pennsylvania covers 622 square miles of some of the state's most highly sought-after property and locations. Picking exactly where you may wish to live in the county, especially when you have a family or hope to start one in the future, means that you may also be interested in the educational opportunities available in the locations you are considering.

With 13 school districts, Bucks County supports more than 96,000 students, attending classes in over 270 schools, taught by more than 9,000 educators. Our school districts all work diligently to provide exceptional educational opportunities to the children they serve. Let us help you determine which school district and location might be best for you from one convenient website.

www.BucksCountyEducation.com

A Strong Tradition of Educational Opportunity

With one click you will find information on:

- All of the county's 13 School Districts
 - Top news and stories
 - Superintendents' videos on Points of Pride
 - District website links
- The 3 Career Technical Centers
 - Locations and districts served
 - Top news and stories
 - Center website links
- Bucks County Intermediate Unit; an educational service agency
- Education in Pennsylvania - data, reporting, legislation, and statistics

Living in Bucks County

Included on the site is an abundance of information about living, working, and enjoying life in beautiful Bucks County. Get an understanding of the family-centric culture, deep American and art history of our county, parks and recreational opportunities, and even some of the great events and activities that take place right here. We hope this website will help you consider calling Bucks County your home.

