What do you feel are the strengths of the current middle school schedule?

(58 responses)

plenty of time is given to "dig" in to a lesson

It runs smoothly

The 7th grade schedule has academics and special area classes evenly distributed through the day.

OP allows for students to work on homework and get help when needed. Prefer the non-rotating periods as we currently use.

Classes are long enough to hold students' attention. Longer classes I feel would cause some students to "zone out". I worry about some of our students with the block schedule in high school next year.

The teaching time allotment for each class.

The DS time that the students have and the team classes.

Teachers who go the extra mile to help students meet their goals and have good communication with staff and parents

Good choice of subject matter.

The ability to have Language Arts/Reading as a block. 7/8 Science all work on the same division of the subject at the same time.

What do you feel are the weaknesses of the current middle school schedule?

(59 responses)

nothing

nothing

People getting pulled out of classes

People getting pulled out of classes

I have no weaknesses to report

Children lose interest

I'd like to see ALC opportunities for math and LA.

Eliminate Homeroom, use the first period class as the homeroom, as done at the high school

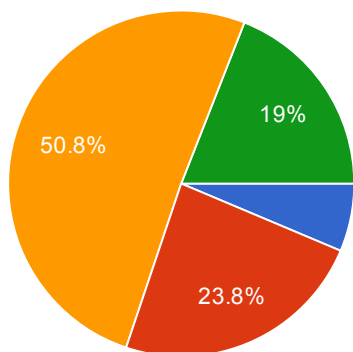

I think that we struggle with common courtesy and respect. This really has nothing to do with the middle school schedule, but it seems like a lot of students are lacking in the respect, empathy, manners department.

Not enough time to teach children needing additional learning time in class.

Not enough time for special education teachers to see their students for social skills, extra help, etc. Time for interventions regarding social-emotional development and making smart decisions about social media
