Dear Pennsbury High School Families,

Today we were notified of another Snapchat post made by students. We contacted the police immediately and identified the students who posted the comments. The students were interviewed and indicated that the posting that said "bring the shotgun" was "a joke" related to the football game last night. The police confirmed the students had no plan or access to weapons of any kind. Regardless of intent, the students will be held accountable.

Again, valuable police and school resources were dedicated to investigating "a joke" rather than providing needed support to our school and community.

Please support us by having conversations with your children and helping them understand the appropriate use of their cell phones and the power of what they say online.

We commend the individual reporting this concern and want to assure you that we take every threat seriously and they are fully investigated.

REMINDER: Tonight @ 6:30 pm: Social Media presentation for parents. Click here for details.

Sincerely,
