

Hello Penn Valley Families!

The Scholastic Book Fair will be returning to Penn Valley the week of May 6-10th! This is an exciting time for Penn Valley students, they enjoy browsing the options and purchasing their books to read at home!

If you would like to add money to an eWallet for your student, please follow the link below. This eliminates the need for students to carry cash to school.

We would love for you to join us during the week! Below is a sign up genius for the weeklong event. Feel free to sign up during your student's shopping period, for an hour, or all day! The students love to see their grown ups at school!
